

Farnham U3A Project 2010-2011

From Ragtime to Wartime – Between the Wars

All events are open to all members, if a ticket is required the contact details are given at the bottom of this sheet. Please look at the noticeboard for further details of each event. It is helpful if you can contact group secretaries of your intention to attend an open meeting.

* NEW GROUP, linked to the theme of the project

The Jazz Age, Inter-War Short Stories, Group 24, see programme for details*.

Thursday, 16th September, 2 - 4 pm Jazz Open Meeting Richard Thomas

Find out how jazz became the music of the era.

Tuesday, 28th September 2010 Inaugural day Tickets at, or after, Registration, £4

Starting at 10am, order to be finalised The Treaty of Versailles Gerry Clarke

The Last Dance: 1936, given by the author, Denys Blakeway

Cocktails and Laughter, and What Comes After Kirsty Allan

Monday, 4th October 2pm, Monthly Meeting The Glory Days of Croydon Airport

Monday, 11th October –Study Day – no tickets needed

10 am Don't Mention the War, a study of painters in the aftermath of World War I

A talk followed by discussion after coffee. Peter Duffy

Lunch can be ordered from the café or make your own arrangements

2 pm Women in Waiting – Women's changing status after the war

Rosemary Thomas

Tuesday, 12th October, 2-4pm Music Discovery Open Meeting Michael Gardener

Tuesday, 26th October 1.30 – 3.30 Film Club Open Meeting

Hitchcock's "The Thirty Nine Steps", from 1935

Monday, 1st November 2pm, Monthly Meeting Camberley Between the Wars,

Mary Bennett

Thursday, 4th November – Study Day at the V&A, a trip by coach

This includes a talk set around the objects of the era in the museum's collections, lead by Caroline Dale, a Blue Badge Guide. There will be free time to visit other parts of the collections or to see the current exhibition, Diaghilev and the Ballets Russes, which complements our theme very well. Application forms available at Registration or from Pam Taylor.

Monday, 6th December – Christmas Celebrations – Tickets £3

10am Join us for festive entertainment, including a dramatic presentation

To be followed by mulled wine and mince pies

There will be the following events in 2011, summarised as shown,

Monday, 10th January 2pm Monthly Meeting

Brooklands, the Racing Years Gordon Knowles

Monday, 24th January – Study Day – no tickets needed details later

Wednesday, 2nd February 2 – 4.30 Opera Open meeting Michael Rowe

Monday, 7th February 2pm Monthly Meeting

The Architecture of the Era, Eric Buesnel and The Architecture Group

Friday, 11th February – Study Day – no tickets needed details later

Friday, 18th March 2pm Grand Finale

There will be further Open Meetings, details later

Tickets and forms can be obtained as specified, or by contacting Pam Taylor, 01252

715218 or on sastre1@btinternet.com